

Presidents Message

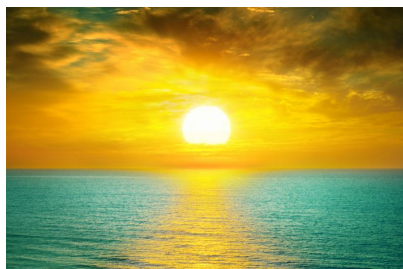

The Marco Island Woman's Club continues to volunteer and get ready for our summer socials (listed below). Please join us as we get to know one another better as the friendships that we develop from this MIWC sisterhood are very special.

A sincere thank you to the ladies who are keeping us connected this summer and throughout the year. Carol Hobday (corresponding secretary) Austine Frawley (webmaster) and Dee Luccisano (newsletter and directory) are quietly behind the scenes volunteering their talents and time. Maureen Chodaba is also keeping the community aware of all our accomplishments with her personal writing flair. We are fortunate to have such talent within our club and they are "Making a Difference" for all of us. Read about what is happening and please get involved! Wishing you a very happy 4th of July, stay safe and well. God Bless America!

Book Club Report

The Book Club continues to meet monthly over the summer, alternating between Zoom and in-person meetings. The June book is "Black Cake," by Charmaine Wilkerson.

It recounts the story of a mother's puzzling inheritance to her grown children: a black cake made from a family recipe and a voice recording, which challenges everything the siblings thought they knew about their lineage and themselves.

The Book Club has a waiting list, but a second club could be started if additional members sign up for the list. For additional information on joining this possible new club, please contact Cristina Leske at mcleske@gmail.com or (239) 394 1088.
